

About GEO

Written by Administrator

Monday, 19 April 2010 13:09 - Last Updated Tuesday, 14 September 2010 12:42

GEO is a specialist in environmental consulting services mainly focusing on environmental studies for industrial, commercial, educational and residential projects. GEO provides integrated solutions to environmental problems by applying state of the art techniques and methods to guarantee high quality environmental consultancy and services that complies with the State of Kuwait and international standards and regulations.

The core business of the firm is assisting clients in decision making, planning, design, and implementing for preservation of environment and sustainable development. GEO operates on the business principle that client service and satisfaction come first and foremost. We are firmly committed to providing services tailored to our clients' needs through effective management and appropriate technologies to promote cost-efficiency and sustainable development. We achieve these through personal commitment of highly qualified, experienced professionals, and the corporate commitment of consistently providing the highest quality services within budget and on schedule.